Embedded VISION Europe 2017

Debut of first European Embedded Vision Conference

Embedded VISION Europe 2017, the only conference in Europe having the focus exclusively on this disruptive technology, will show the capability of hardware and software platforms; will present applications and markets for embedded vision and will create a platform for the exchange of information.

The Embedded VISION Europe targets developers and users of embedded (vision) systems from all industries. The conference will be supplemented by a table-top exhibition.
